Destination Maternity Sends Letter to Stockholders Regarding Reasons to Vote
FOR its Director Nominees on the WHITE Proxy Card

MOORESTOWN, N.J., May 17, 2018 — Destination Maternity Corporation (NASDAQ: DEST), the world's leading maternity apparel retailer, today announced that it has sent a letter to its stockholders. A full copy of the letter can be found below:

VOTE FOR ALL OF DESTINATION'S HIGHLY QUALIFIED DIRECTOR NOMINEES ON THE WHITE PROXY CARD TODAY!

May 17, 2018

Dear Fellow Stockholders:

When determining how to cast your vote at the upcoming 2018 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, we encourage you to consider the following reasons to support Destination's director nominees on the WHITE proxy card, and to IGNORE and THROW OUT any GOLD proxy materials you receive from a dissident group of stockholders led by Nathan G. Miller and Peter O'Malley (the "Miller Group").

Reasons to Vote FOR Destination's Director Nominees
on the WHITE Proxy Card TODAY

The Right Team	Destination has a strong mix of newly appointed and deeply experienced directors collectively possessing a deep knowledge of the retail and apparel landscape.
The Right Strategy	Destination's Board and Management have a clear go-forward strategy that is yielding results.
Refreshed Board	Half of Destination's nominees joined in the last four months, each with the industry expertise and background to accelerate the Company's path to profitable growth.
Most Qualified Individuals	Destination's nominees bring significant C-suite and public company boardroom experience, as opposed to the Miller Group's nominees who have none.
Proxy Advisors Recommend the WHITE card	Leading proxy advisory firms ISS and Glass Lewis both independently recommend stockholders vote on the Company's WHITE proxy card.

Sadly, in an attempt to compensate for its nominees' lack of experience with ANY business focused on the maternity sector, the Miller Group has resorted to misleading criticisms and innuendo. Not only has the Miller Group used inaccurate and incomplete information to attack the Company's compensation structure without noting that Destination stockholders have given affirmative say-on-pay votes each year, it has levelled vague accusations about the Company's governance practices without noting, as ISS stated, that "...directors are elected annually, the company's chairman is independent, there is no poison pill, and shareholders are able to act by written consent."

And, now, desperate to gain control of your Company and in the ultimate disregard of stockholder interests, the Miller Group has threatened to sue the Board, the Company and Orchestra-Prémaman (our largest stockholder) after the annual meeting in an attempt to stop Orchestra-Prémaman from exercising its right as a stockholder to vote its shares in favor of the Board's highly qualified nominees.

Do NOT be fooled by the Miller Group's attempts to distract you from the fact that your Board and management team are on the right path.

Commenting on the progress the Company has made, Pierre-André Mestre, recently appointed Director and Chairman of Orchestra-Prémaman, said:

"Based on the tangible results, including meaningful SG&A reductions, as well as the Company's aggressive go forward strategy (including the extension of the Company's product offerings into baby and children's hard and soft goods), Orchestra believes that the refreshed Board and management team are moving Destination Maternity in the right direction."

At this point in the Company's evolution – with an experienced and refreshed Board overseeing the execution of a detailed go-forward strategy that is showing results – your Board is excited about the visible path to profitable, long-term growth. We strongly believe that electing any of the Miller Group's inexperienced and under-qualified candidates to the Board could disrupt the continued successful execution of the Destination's plan and damage stockholder value.

Vote on the WHITE proxy card "FOR" all of our highly qualified slate of nominees:
Barry Erdos, Melissa Payner-Gregor, Peter Longo and Pierre-André Mestre.

Your vote is extremely important, no matter how many or how few shares you own. Please vote today by telephone, online or by signing and dating the enclosed WHITE proxy card and returning it in the postage-paid envelope.

If you have previously returned a gold proxy card you received from the Miller Group, you have every right to change your vote by using the WHITE proxy card to support the Destination Board. Only your latest dated validly executed proxy card will count.

Please DO NOT send back any gold proxy cards, even as a "protest vote." Doing so will cancel out any previously submitted WHITE proxy cards.

We are extremely honored to serve on behalf of you, our stockholders. Your Board and management team are committed to constructive engagement with our stockholders and maximizing the value of your investment.

Thank you for your continued support.

Very truly yours,

The Destination Maternity Board
